GSAA MISSION:

GSAA is an accredited high school offering college-prep courses with a uniquely Seventh-day Adventist perspective.

Students are trained for leadership, gaining knowledge and experience that will help them be successful leaders in their family, church and career

Students are given opportunities to engage in service and develop a life-long passion for helping others and giving back to their community.

GSAA strives to prepare students for eternity focusing our academics, athletics and extra-curricular activities by encouraging the development of a relationship with Jesus Christ.

The GSAA Link is an alumni magazine of Gem State Adventist Academy that issues twice a year.

Harli Tucker,

"I have been attending GSAA for 2 amazing years. I love the people, staff and friends that I have here. They all contribute to my love for GSAA.

I honestly wish I could stay and be a student longer. It will be almost disturbing knowing I am not a part of GSAA's everyday life. I will miss GSAA dearly. But I do plan on coming to visit and come back to watch our Jaguars conquer!

I have been considering Walla Walla University for my schooling to pursue a career in dentistry."

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Greetings from GSAA!

My name is John Soulé, and I am the new Principal here at Gem State Adventist Academy. My wife, Teresa and I are so happy to be serving here at this amazing school! Teresa was born here in Boise and her parents and our son have lived here for some time. It's so great to be here near family!

My wife and I have worked at various schools for the past thirty years. I have been an Athletic Director and Principal. My wife has been Girl's Dean, Registrar, Alumni Director and Administrative Assistant. You could say that we have a passion for Adventist Christian Education. During this time we have had many young people cross our paths. Many coming from very unfortunate situations and many coming from very loving homes. We are still in touch with many of them and often find them sleeping on our living room floor as they are passing through town! We have seen miracles happen at our schools. Students whose stories were changed because of caring staff and exceptional teachers.

I'd like to tell you about another story. The story about a school that sits up on a hill. This school has gone through many changes throughout the years. Different administrators, teachers, curriculum, financial situations and even paint colors. But there are a few things that remain constant. Students that need a safe place to be educated and heal or maybe need to discover their own relationship with Jesus. They still find an exceptional education with top quality teachers and staff. They still find adults that want to spend time with them and help them develop into good people who will go out into our community and churches and share our message. These things have not changed. And the great part about this story is that it is not over yet!

The story of Gem State Adventist Academy is ongoing and student's lives are being impacted here daily. Good things are happening here! And I'd like to ask, as you think about your story at GSAA, that you will remember our students and this school in your prayers as we continue the legacy.

Blessings,
John Soule

The Fun in Learning

I would imagine, when you ask people what their favorite part of life is, they will most likely respond with “vacation!” or “sleep!” or maybe “Netflix!” – things that we all love or enjoy doing. When this question is asked, I can almost guarantee you that “school” won’t be the first and immediate answer, because it is something that we all do, and not necessarily because we like it. However, here at Gem State Academy, your mind can be changed due to not just the outstanding academic opportunity but also the fun you have in classes. The school experience here is an enjoyable process! At this school, the teachers invest so much hard work to make their lessons enjoyable, productive, and informative. Who would not want such an amazing opportunity?

I enjoy every class that I am enrolled in at Gem State, but I particularly enjoy Anatomy and Physiology, taught by Mr. Wahlman. I love to study absolutely everything about the human body, so much so that I want to go to a university and major in nursing! Combine the fact that I am already interested in this field and amused at the fascinating method of instruction that our teacher presents. This is one epic class! I know this is giving me a great head start in college! I have been given such an incredible chance to get an education, and with the help of these marvelous teachers, I am getting a perfect start to the rest of my life, while having such a fun time in the process.

STUDENT'S THOUGHTS ON PRAYER

- “Prayer is a way to become closer with God and develop a relationship with Him. Prayer is very important, and I have been trying to start every day by praying and asking God to give me a positive outlook. Prayer and the Bible is your connection to God to Become closer with Him and to understand His purpose for your life.” ~ Kayla Hastings, class of 2021
- “Prayer is a way to connect with our Heavenly Father, the One who created us and to feel comfort and safety. Prayer is very important to me, because it helps me each and every day to live the best life possible. Prayer for others is important, because praying for them can be an indirect way of connecting them with God.” ~Gianna Davidson, class of 2023
- “Prayer is a very powerful thing. A community that comes together in prayer is powerful. Prayer is stronger when we come together. It is important to pray for others because it is a powerful thing. Prayer can be a part of the healing process. Also people can know that they are loved.” ~ Navonntah Martin-Reum, class of 2024
- “Prayer is an amazing thing. It is a way to relieve daily stress. It provides a sense of peace and reassurance. It’s important to pray for others, because when we do so we ask the Holy Spirit to guide and influence that specific person.” ~ Jayden Hood, class of 2023
- “Prayer is important, because I’ve seen its power. In my difficult times people prayed for me and God helped me through. Prayer is the reason I am here at GSAA.~ Lucas Drake, class of 2024
- “Prayer is a way to truly connect with God, a time to talk to Him in frustrating times or as a friend. He wants to hear from you. Also it is important to pray for others because it lets the people, you’re praying for, know that you care for them. God truly listens when you are caring for others like God cares for you and I.” ~ Kyle Sullivan, class of 2023
- “Prayer is a way to talk with God. When I have a bad day a quick prayer helps me and gives me comfort. Prayer is important to me because I can explain all my problems without being judged. Prayer for other people is important because it helps and heals. When we pray for others it shows we care for them.” ~ Gillian Raymond, class of 2024
- “Prayer is essential, therapeutic and relieving. It is highly important in our walk with God. Prayer for others helps to stay connected and can make an impact on the person who you praying for.” ~ Drew Echelmier, class of 2024
- “Prayer is an important aspect of my life, but as I’ve gotten older I’ve learned to truly appreciate the peace that it brings me especially during these difficult times.” ~ Chloe Iwasa, class of 2021

When you ask a student what their favorite class is they quickly answer Math or English. That is not the case for me. I came to Gem State after going to a public school for two years. Being at Gem State and seeing how willing to help as well as what amazing Christians the teachers are, has made choosing just one class excruciating. When it comes down to it I would probably have to choose Bible.

I would pick Bible because I went to a Christian grade school my fifth through eight grade years and we had Bible class every day. Then I went to a public High school where they did not offer Bible class. I missed it so much. Coming here and being able to learn new Bible verses I have never read before has been incredible. Each day we walk into class and right after the bell rings we have prayer. Then we jump right into what we are learning. Mr. Perez doesn't baby us like some people do just because they think we are too young to understand. He teaches us stuff that we need to know as well as understand. All the stuff we learn is backed up by tones of scripture that way if someone asks why we believe that way we can't say I don't know, I was just taught that way. We can get out our Bible and show them from scripture why we believe in going to church on Saturday.

Mr. Perez is an amazing teacher because he does a wonderful job explaining what could be really confusing to us. Each time I walk into his classroom I know that whatever we learn it is going to be awesome. One of the things I have learned while going to school here is more about the Holy spirit. I have always grown up knowing that the Holy Spirit is part of the Godhead but I never studied specifically on Him. During Bible class we studied about how the Holy Spirit is part of the Godhead but he is his own being. He could speak to us without asking God what to tell us first but he doesn't. He only tells us what God wants him to tell us. I found this amazing because I never read the scriptures in the Bible that said that until I came here. All this is from one remarkably well taught class which I believe should be offered in every school. You don't make it mandatory for the people that don't want to go but that way it gives Christians the chance to learn something that they might not have found on their own. The Bible is my favorite class because it gives me the chance to learn something new about the Lord every Bible class. This class truly is a blessing from God.

Volunteer Program at GSAA

“Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God’s grace in its various forms.”

1 Peter 4:10

Vision, dedication, commitment, and a joyful heart; that’s the complete image of GSAA volunteers. Their enthusiasm, energy, and creativity shine from every project that they accomplish for the school. They are people who show great compassion for young people’s ministry, they like to share God’s love, and they want to be there where their help and experience is needed the most. “It is important to give of yourself for a mission or cause that is bigger than yourself,” says Harold Becker, GSAA Volunteer Coordinator, “It’s all about the young people. GSAA holds a strategic position in the Idaho conference to help preach the soon coming of Jesus. What better place to invest your funds and time?”

The Volunteer Program at Gem State restarted about three years ago when Harold and his wife Gloria started establishing their roots in Idaho after moving from California, where he was working at Adventist Health as a Senior IT leader. As a graduate from Andrews University and having nearly half of his family associated with Adventist schools, Harold upholds Adventist education, and he believes that “GSAA has a mission to bring young people to Christ while providing top-tier educational opportunities.” He says, “When I see the administration, faculty, and staff working so hard with limited resources, it inspires us, volunteers, to get in and help. We have amazing young people at this school.”

Over these three years, after reopening the GSAA Volunteer Program, there have “been many projects of general maintenance, landscaping, decorating and cleaning, it is hard to mention them all,” says Harold. Here are a few of them:

- Remodeling of the GSAA church with paint and a new background at the front of the church.

- The church balcony remodeled into three rooms: a worship leadership classroom, a teacher’s office, and a staff copy room.
- Remodeling of the Fitness Center and installing new weight and cardio equipment, spin videos and so much more for community access.
- The Fitness Center’s climbing wall installation finally completed.
- The Hall of Fame on the Administration building’s second floor painted and updated, so all the graduating class pictures are on a timeline.
- The Gym floor stripped, repainted, and refinished.
- Maintenance projects of electric and mechanical support completed.

- Several GSAA houses remodeled.
- The Coaches room (at the front of the gym) remodeled.
- Creation mural on the second floor.
- The main entrances and hallway of the Administration building's lower level painted, and new interior decorating added.
- New digital signage program with two new TV screens installed at the main entrances for easy advertisements.
- Many of the classrooms have also been painted.
- A GSAA Strategic Plan has been developed with accreditation support.
- Establishment of the GSAA YouTube channel, and production of digital and printed marketing materials for the school's outreach.
- Finally, landscaping improvements around campus which include purchasing plants and landscaping materials, mowing the grass, and removing 35 tree stumps around the school.

Volunteers and GSAA staff generously support the school by donating their time, skills, talents, equipment, materials, items, and considerable funds. "Right now, we have a few individuals that volunteer at GSAA regularly. Robert Congleton, Ted Gilbert, and Harold Becker do maintenance and landscaping; Gloria Becker and Tammy Congleton worked this summer on beautifying the campus and the interior design of the buildings, and Tatyana Wahlman helps with media and web design. "Don't forget our teachers donate countless hours of their own time remodeling and personalizing various school places," says Harold Becker, "and many of these projects have been self-funded by dollars donated by the volunteers and generous GSAA supporters: the alumni, donors, and the churches and our Great Inspirer the Lord Jesus."

"For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." Eph. 2:10

The volunteers of GSAA invite all enthusiastic people to join this program. Let our ministry for the young people open the windows of heaven for them, and they would glorify God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Savior.

A HEART DRIVEN MISSION

As the 2019-2020 school year drew to a close, staff and students bid a fond farewell with many thanks and best wishes to our beloved Mrs. Davies, who had been the GSAA Registrar for 31 years! At various points during that time, she had also served as Administrative Assistant and Librarian, as well as teaching Living Skills. Mrs. Davies richly blessed our campus with her calm, caring, and compassionate presence, and kept all of us on track with her organization, attention to detail, and unending patience. Mr. and Mrs. Davies moved to GSAA 32 years ago when he was hired as boys' dean, later also holding the positions of PE teacher, Vice-Principal, Athletic Director, and Recruiter. Although Mr. Davies concluded his career by teaching at another school, he coached for the Jaguars basketball program, and both of them were very active in the Gem State Academy Church. Over the summer the Davies moved to the Portland area where they are very much enjoying retirement.

As a more tangible tribute to Mrs. Davies, whose heart has always been to see students attend GSAA and to have the opportunity to experience our mission of engaging in service, training for leadership, and preparing for eternity, there are several alumni who would like to establish a scholarship in her name. PRICELESS MEMORIES

Raul Castanon

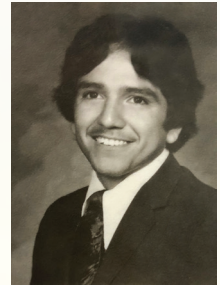

Wherever Raul Castanon was serving, he welcomed and valued people. He appreciated authenticity, honesty, humor, and beauty. He went well beyond the mere title of Christian, to the “being” of one – in all actions, every day, big or small. Raul made you feel that you mattered, taking time for family, friends and or even a stranger. He knew Jesus is coming soon. Hebrews 6:11 could sum up his philosophy of life: “Our great desire is that you will keep right on loving others as long as life lasts, in order to make certain that what you hope for will come true.”

Raul entered his rest on Monday, August 31, 2020, in his home surrounded by his family. He was born on August 24, 1954, in El Paso, Texas, the son of Aristeo and Rebecca (Velo) Castanon. He is survived by his wife, Charon (Terrell) Castanon, daughter Mandy, his father Aristeo, brothers Carlos and Hugo, sisters Patty and Becky (Mario) Hernandez, and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his mother Rebecca, his brother Ari, and his son Nathan.

Raul spent his childhood in Cd Jaurez, Chih., Mexico, and Southern California. He moved to Idaho before it was popular and attended high school at Gem State Adventist Academy, graduating in 1973. While attending GSAA he excelled in sports, made lifelong friends, and met his future wife, Charon Terrell. He repeatedly returned to his Alma Mater supporting his children and serving as a coach, alumni president, volunteer, sponsor, and donor. He simply showed up time and time again. One of his many “adopted kids,” Jesse Zappia, shared the following: “If Raul was present, you just knew you were in the right place and that everything was going to be okay. He became a father figure to many of us; you could just feel his love.” You could always find Raul humbly serving young people in various positions of leadership within the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Boise Valley Adventist School, Pathfinders, Bible Study, and Camp Ida-Haven were a few of his favorites.

Raul learned the plumbing trade from his future father-in-law, Wayne Terrell. He also worked for another relative, Milford Terrell, before opening his own plumbing business, PC Plumbing – contributing to the positive commercial growth of the Treasure Valley. He was in business to make a living, but he would regularly assist friends with their plumbing needs. In his free time he would golf, ride mountain bikes, ski, and snowshoe. He made time for his friends and helped host innumerable celebrations. He and Charon spent endless amounts of time and money giving all their friends and family priceless memories and the opportunity to live better lives. They genuinely love people. Anyone can feel it; it is all consuming. Charon was the love of his life and his final concerns were not about himself, but about her. Raul was a great dad to their children, Nathan and Amanda “Mandy.” They knew they were genuinely loved and supported in all their life choices and endeavors.

Raul’s belief that Jesus is real and makes a daily difference is embodied in Hebrews 6:19 – “This confidence is like a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls.” He dealt with all life’s blows with the certainty in mind, giving others hope through his attitude, actions, kind heart, and quick wit. One of his good friends stated it this way, “Raul was deeply spiritual in a very casual and down-to-earth way. He could put people at ease by his calm presence. Raul liked to “dig in” to a Biblical topic or subject to understand the why and how for a situation. And he loved to teach, and to be taught. Raul was grounded in Jesus, and certain of his life, and his future. He was at peace.” Raul knew that God ... will bring salvation to all those who are eagerly waiting for him.” (Hebrews 9:28.) Rest well Raul; come soon Lord Jesus.

“This confidence is like a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls.”

Hebrews 6:19

To honor Raul’s life and share in his passion for a strong future for our youth, please consider supporting Adventist education, Pathfinders, or contributing to the Nathan Castanon Scholarship Fund at Camp Ida-Haven, PO Box 4330, McCall, Idaho 83638.
